How to reach Nijmegen

- by plane/train via Schiphol Airport
  From Schiphol Railway Station take a train in the direction Hilversum/Utrecht or Hilversum/Amersfoort. In Duivendrecht you have to switch to a train in the direction Utrecht, despite the fact your 07 or 37 train from Schiphol may have Utrecht as its destination. The (other) train to Utrecht leaves from the platform 'upstairs'. With possibility one half this train is a direct train to Nijmegen. Otherwise you will have to change in Utrecht and possibly in Arnhem (in the late afternoon some of the 04 and 34 trains from Utrecht have Nijmegen as destination). If you happen to miss your connection in Utrecht, then it is good to know that the 28 and 58 trains from Duivendrecht stop in Utrecht as well. This gives you the opportunity to reach Nijmegen with only a very short delay, and without the extra change in Arnhem.

in brackets the destination of the train

- by train from other directions trains run every half an hour between Roosendaal - 's-Hertogenbosch - Nijmegen (from Belgium switch in Roosendaal) and Zwolle - Deventer - Arnhem - Nijmegen (from Germany switch in Deventer or Arnhem), between Arnhem and Nijmegen a regular service of five trains per hour

- you can also have a look at `www.ns.nl`, `www.ovr.nl` or `bahn.hafas.de` for more information about the timetables and available routes

How to reach your hotel by treintaxi For travellers by train, there is the possibility to buy a seven guilder treintaxi ticket in addition to your railway ticket. This will allow you to use a special taxi service between Nijmegen Central Station (departure from a spot immediately next to the bus station) and any destination. If not indicated by the word 'treintaxi' then these special taxies can be recognized by the NS symbol (see map below)

How to reach some hotels by car directions to follow when you are near Nijmegen:

- Centrum for Apollo. The hotel is in Bisschop Hamerstraat, next to Keizer Karelplein

- Heilig Landstichting for Rozenhof. The hotel is situated on the main road through Heilig Landstichting, which starts as Groesbeekseweg in Nijmegen.

- Beek-Ubbergen for 't Spijker. The hotel is situated on the main road through Ubbergen and Beek. This road is parallel to N52 and can be reached most easily from N52.

recommended (free-)ways:

- A52 (via Arnhem)
  from the north, from Oberhausen (A12) or from Utrecht/Rotterdam (A12/A15) and heading for Nijmegen Centre. Directly after having crossed the river Waal, take N52 (direction Kleve) if you are heading for Beek. Other participants should follow the main direction and will be lead to Keizer Karelplein via Oranjesingel. At this roundabout, take the exit Bisschop Hamerstraat or Groesbeekseweg to Heilig Landstichting

- N52 (via Kleve)
  from Germany and heading for Beek or Heilig Landstichting. Leave N52 at the exit Beek. For Heilig Landstichting turn left in Beek (direction Berg en Dal, uphill). In Berg en Dal turn left once more and then right (direction Heilig Landstichting). In Heilig Landstichting, at the small roundabout, turn right again (main road to Nijmegen; Rozenhof is after a few hundred metres)

- A50 (via 'knooppunt Lindenholt') from 's-Hertogenbosch (A50). Follow the main direction (Nijmegen Centrum). You will reach Keizer Karelplein from the entry Graafseweg. Then you must make a choice between the exits Groesbeekseweg (Heilig Landstichting), Oranjesingel (and then N52 to Ubbergen/Beek) and Bisschop Hamerstraat

- A73 (via 'knooppunt Neerbosch') coming from Utrecht/Rotterdam (A12/A15) and heading for Heilig Landstichting or Beek there is a good possility to avoid Nijmegen Centre. At 'knooppunt Neerbosch' follow the main direction to Nijmegen. Going straight ahead you will be lead through several outskirts of Nijmegen and finally end up in Heilig Landstichting (small roundabout). When you turn left here, you are back on a main road to Nijmegen and will find Rozenhof several hundred metres later. For 't Spijker just cross this main road to Nijmegen and follow the road you are on even further, until it ends. Then you should turn left and then right (direction Beek, downhill). Once you are in Beek 't Spijker is practically in front of you (slightly on the left)

- A73 (via Malden)
  from Venlo or from Germany and heading for Nijmegen Centre. Leave A73 at the exit Malden and turn right. Directly after the bridge turn left (direction Nijmegen). For Heilig Landstichting or Beek turn right (direction Heilig Landstichting) just before Nijmegen and then proceed as for the other A73 case. For Nijmegen Centre just follow the road; you will reach Keizer Karelplein from the entry Groesbeekseweg and then take the exit Bisschop Hamerstraat

from your hotel to the University by car

- from Keizer Karelplein take the exit Oranjesingel and then turn right at the first traffic lights. Follow this road (called Heyendaalseweg after some time) for a while. After having crossed the railway the 'B-faculteit' appears on your left hand side

- from Rozenhof follow Nijmeegsebaan in direction Nijmegen, at the traffic lights turn left (d' Almarasweg). Follow this road and turn right at the end (Heyendaalseweg); the 'B-faculteit' is after several hundred metres on the right

- from 't Spijker first go to Heilig Landstichting via Berg en Dal (as described above for the case Rozenhof via N52). At the roundabout, turn right, pass Rozenhof and then proceed as above

bus services on Sunday evening

- line 5 from Central Station to Rozenhof direction Groesbeek, bus stop: Rozenhof
- line 106 from Central Station to 't Spijker direction Beek, bus stop: Van Randwijckweg buses run every half an hour

bus services on weekdays; with change at Central Station

- line 6 and 106 from 't Spijker to Central Station direction Brabantse Poort / Centraal Station buses run every quarter of an hour in both directions In Beek line 6 to Nijmegen runs in the same direction as line 106 from Nijmegen!
- line 1, 10 and 11 from Nijmegen Central Station to University direction Brabantse Poort / Brakkenstein / Molenhoek bus stop: Universiteit Oostzijde seven buses per hour in both directions

special bus service on weekdays

- line 25 from Rozenhof to University direction Centraal Station, bus stop: Bibliotheek buses run every quarter of an hour: in the morning from Rozenhof to University and in the afternoon from University to Rozenhof
- in the evening when line 25 does not run anymore, the alternative way to get back to Rozenhof would be to take line 1 or 11 in direction Beuningen and get off that the third stop (Archipelstraat). Line 5 in direction Groesbeek then leaves from another bus stop (Kazerne) which is on the right, just around the corner

how to walk

- from Rozenhof to University (15-20 minutes)
  follow Nijmeegsebaan in direction Nijmegen, turn left at the traffic lights (d' Almarasweg), cross the railway and turn right just after the tennis centre (Driehuizerweg). Via the parking place (on the left) you will approach the faculty building from behind. Then you have to walk around the building in anticlockwise direction to reach the entrance at Toernooiveld
- from Apollo to Central Station (5-10 minutes) via Van Schaeck Mathonsingel (see map below). Because of a reconstruction of the bus station it may be possible that the bus to the University leaves from the new bus station marked by , rather than from the old bus station indicated on the map
